

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

May 20, 2005

H.R. 481

Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site Trust Act of 2005

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Resources on May 18, 2005

H.R. 481 would authorize the Secretary of the Interior to take certain property into trust for the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma and to construct facilities (including structures, utilities, roads, or signs) on such land. Any facility constructed with federal funds would be owned by the federal government and not taken into trust for the tribes. Based on information obtained from the National Park Service, CBO does not expect the Secretary to construct facilities on the tribes' land over the 2005-2010 period. Therefore, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 481 would have no significant effect on the federal budget.

H.R. 481 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not significantly affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

On February 23, 2005, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for S. 57, the Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site Trust Act of 2005, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on February 16, 2005. The two versions of the legislation are identical, as are the cost estimates.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Deborah Reis. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
